

ERASMUS COURSE CONTENTS

ENGLISH

COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTORS	CONTENT
Comparative Constitutional Law	Assist. Prof. Dr. Fatih Öztürk	In the last twenty years, the making of constitutions has gained considerable momentum in countries that have transitioned away from colonialist or communist regimes. Even though this new constitutionalism movement has been received favorably for the most part, some political scientists and lawyers approach these activities with suspicion and skepticism. Through a collection of essays, this course explores main problems of constitutional law in a global context.
Basic Concepts of Criminal Law I-II	Prof. Dr. Adem Sözüer Assist. Prof. Dr. Selman Dursun	Basic Concepts of Criminal Law I aims to give an overview about Turkish Penal and Penal Procedural Law. In fall semester, the focus will be on the general part of the Turkish criminal Law. During the course not only the basic concepts of criminal law such as crime, punishment, security measures, misdemeanors will be discussed, but main principles of criminal law, elements of crime, and criminal law sanctions will also be explained. This course aims to give students a background for further comparative law studies. Basic Concepts of Criminal Law II aims to give a framework on basic principles, concepts and institutions about the Turkish Penal Law, Special Part and Turkish Criminal Procedural Law. Within the context of the course, theft, main sexual offences etc. will be generally discussed. Beside this this course aims to give students basic knowledge on Turkish criminal procedural law. In this context, main criminal procedural law concepts such as Turkish criminal judicial system, procedural phases, judicial process and protective measures will be covered.
Comparative Criminology	Assist. Prof. Dr. Tuba Topçuoğlu	This module includes a discussion of the basic concepts in criminology first and then moves with the discussion of the main purposes of doing cross-cultural research in criminology. Main topics include theoretical and methodological challenges confronted when conducting cross-cultural research in criminology, measurement of crime across nations and various sources available for examining cross-national differences in levels of crime, explaining cross-national differences in levels of crime with specific reference to general theoretical frameworks commonly employed in criminology and empirical research findings.

Comparative Tort Law	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Başak Zeynep Baysal	Study on comparative understanding of the mechanism of tort law in common law and civil law countries.
Corporate Governance In Public Companies	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ali Pahlı Res. Assist. İbrahim Çağrı Zengin	General Principles of Corporate Governance, Board and Management in Public Companies, The Structure of Board, Purchase of A Company's Own Shares, Effects of Corporate Governance Principles to the Group of Companies Regulations, Fiscal Rights of the Board Members, Liability of the Board Members.
Crime Prevention: Theory, Research and Practice	Assist. Prof. Dr. Tuba Topçuoğlu	This module gives a comprehensive review of all crime prevention strategies—that is, law enforcement and criminal justice prevention, developmental crime prevention, community crime prevention and situational crime prevention—employed in fighting against crime. Each seminar includes a discussion of the theory behind each strategy first and then reviews the effectiveness of each strategy in reducing crime based on high-quality empirical research finding
Current Issues of International Law	Dr. V. Neslihan Akün	The course aims to present a panorama of public international law, which covers principles and rules that govern the relations between States and interactions with other international actors. The course is designed to give students a global understanding of the rules governing international relations and, ultimately, provide them with practical skills in legal reasoning and arguing, research and writing on international issues. The title "Current Issues of International Law" is referred to the "international law behind the headlines." Beside of focusing on core areas of public international law, progressive development of int law is held. Current topics, such as, Syria crisis, Mavi Marmara flotilla incident, Artic Sunrise capture...etc. shall be examined on their legal basis in the light of international rules of responsibility to protect, international refugee law, law of the sea...etc. International jurisprudence shall be guiding. The course includes not only contemporary problems that had arisen, but also plenty fields of public international law on a wide range.
General Principles of Company Law in Turkey I-II	Assist. Prof. Dr. Fatih Aydoğan	Company" as a term, elements of the term, general principles, company types (simple partnership, general partnership, private partnership, stock Corporation/public limited liability company, private limited liability company and cooperative), establishment, board of directors, general assembly, shares, dissolution and litigation of public limited liability company, the regulations and directions of European Union on company law.

Harmonization of European Private Law : Civil Law & Private International Law Perspectives	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Faruk Kerem Giray Assist. Prof. Dr. Ayça Akkayan Yıldırım	The process of harmonization of private laws and private international laws is an effort of engaging the society in inter-cultural communication. In order to realize the value of this effort, this course aims to provide a framework for an advanced comprehension of European private law and private international law in comparative perspective. By focusing on the mechanics of European private law from a comparative view, the students will be urged to analyze the impacts of Community legislation on the national legal systems. The role of model laws and CISG in the reform process of national laws will also be assessed. The reform processes of Turkish law that has also been influenced by the unification process of private law in Europe will also be evaluated within this context.
International Human Rights Law	Prof. Dr. İbrahim Kaya Assist. Prof. Dr. Gülay Arslan Öncü Dr. V. Neslihan Akün	This course concentrates on various legal aspects of international human rights such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundations of international human rights law • Protection mechanisms of human rights • Migrant and refugee rights • Rights of children • Women rights • Political participation • Right to fair trial • Economical rights and freedoms
International Law I-II	Assist. Prof. Dr. Engin Şimşek	This class focuses on analysing certain landmark cases of international courts, particularly dealing with the protection of individuals by various international laws. In this regard, it aims for developing students awareness of the effects of international standards upon municipal legal orders
Introduction to Turkish Civil Law	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Emrehan İnal	Historical background, general aspects and characteristics of Turkish Civil Law will be examined

Introduction to Turkish Law of Obligations	Dr. Şirin Aydınçık	This lecture will provide an overview of three different kinds of obligations under Turkish Code of Obligations. The subjects which will be discussed during our course are as follows: Definition and classification of contracts, basic principles regulating contractual relations, fulfillment and termination of contracts. Obligations deriving from acts against Law. Basic conditions of tortuous liability (damage, causal relation) different types of tortuous liabilities. Unjust enrichment.
Legal Negotiation	Assist. Prof. Dr. Fatih Öztürk	This course presents a comprehensive overview of legal negotiation for law students. No single negotiation strategy Works best in all negotiation.
Ottoman & Turkish Law	Assist. Prof. Dr. Fatih Öztürk	For the last two centuries, Turkish residents have been dreaming of the realization of the rule of law. Through a collection of essays, Ottoman and Turkish Law course explores this dream and shows that when Turks and their state start to believe law is above all, change will occur.
Private International Law I-II	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Faruk Kerem Giray Assist. Prof. Dr. İnci Ataman Figanmeşe	In this lecture, Turkish Private International law will be examined by considering Turkish Court decisions and European Union directives on conflict of laws. Conflict of laws is the part of Turkish substantive law concerned with legal questions which contain a foreign element. Multilateral and bilateral agreements is one of the major sources of this subject that makes harmonization of private international law between states. Applicable law to family matters and obligatory matters which has a foreign element will be determined in detail during the course period.
Turkish Constitutional Law	Assist. Prof. Dr. Saadet Yüksel	Students get basic knowledge of the constitutional developments in the Ottoman Empire and Republic of Turkey, including Constitutions of 1921, 1924, 1961 and 1982. They also learn about classification and limitation of basic rights and freedoms; legislative-executive-judicial powers in the Constitution of 1982; constitutional review and individual applications according to the Constitution of 1982. They gain a legal notion, supported by theoretical knowledge of various subjects by comparison of national and international legal dimensions which enables to solve new legal problems. They also gain the ability to define, evaluate and value current legal/constitutional problems.

GERMAN

COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTORS	CONTENT
Die Pflichten des Verkäufers und des Käufers nach dem UN-Kaufrecht	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Bilgehan Çetiner	Im Rahmen dieses Seminars wird keine Vorlesung stattfinden. Die TeilnehmerInnen sind verpflichtet, eine Seminararbeit im Bereich der "Pflichten des Verkäufers und des Käufers nach dem UN-Kaufrecht" (etwa 10 bis 20 Seiten) zu verfassen
Einführung in das türkische Zivilprozessrecht I-II	Prof. Dr. Nevhis Deren-Yıldırım	(Inhalt) In jenem Seminar wird die Grundstruktur des türkischen Zivilprozesses näher untersucht werden. Im Vordergrund werden die Themen wie die Prozessmaximen, Beweismittel und Rechtsmittel stehen.
Einführung ins türkische Immaterialgüterrecht I-II	Assoc. Prof. Dr Mustafa Aksu	Im Rahmen der Lehrveranstaltung wird zuerst einen groben Überblick über das türkische Privat- und insbesondere Zivilrecht gegeben. Anschließend werden die Grundfragen im Urheber-, Patent-, Markenrecht erörtert. Hierbei werden auch die internetrechtsbezogenen Fragen des Urheber-, Marken und Domainnamenrechts anhand von Fällen diskutiert. Aufgrund dessen, dass das EU-Recht für die Entwicklungen im türkischen Immaterialgüterrecht von besonderer Bedeutung ist, werden die Harmonisierungsfragen und auch einige Entscheidungen des EuGH im Bereich vom Immaterialgüterrecht behandelt.
Vergleichende Einführung in das türkische Strafprozessrecht I-II	Prof. Dr. Adem Sözüer Assist. Prof. Dr. Gottfried Plagemann	Die Vorlesung behandelt das türkische Strafprozessrecht und seine Veränderung mit und nach der Reform von 2004/5. Nach einer kurzen Einführung in die historische Entwicklung und die Rezeption europäischen Rechts in der Republik Türkei, werden die wesentlichen Themen des Strafprozessrechts behandelt und im Vergleich zum deutschen Recht untersucht. Im Vordergrund der Veranstaltung liegt der Vergleich zwischen deutschem und türkischen Recht und die Besonderheiten sowie die Entwicklung des türkischen Strafprozessrechts.
Vergleichende Einführung in das türkische Strafrecht I-II	Prof. Dr. Adem Sözüer Assist. Prof. Dr. Gottfried Plagemann	Die Vorlesung behandelt das türkische Strafrecht mit einem Schwerpunkt auf den Reformen der letzten 10 Jahre. Nach einer Einführung in die türkische Strafrechtsgeschichte und die Rezeption europäischen Rechts in der Republik Türkei, werden die Grundzüge des Strafrechts - Allgemeiner Teil behandelt und sodann beispielhaft ausgewählte Delikte des Besonderen Teils behandelt. Im Vordergrund der Veranstaltung liegt der Vergleich zwischen deutschem und türkischen Recht und die Besonderheiten sowie die Entwicklung des türkischen Strafrechts.

--	--	---

FRENCH

COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTORS	CONTENT
Droit Turc des Sociétés de Capitaux	Prof. Dr. Mehmet Helvacı Res. Assist. Necdet Uzel	Société Anonyme, Société A Responsabilité Limitée, Société Commandite par Actions

TURKISH

COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTORS	CONTENT
İdare Hukukuna Giriş	Assist. Prof. Dr. Halit Uyanık	İdare Hukuku, Türkiye'nin idari teşkilatını, temel idari faaliyet ve görevlerini, bu faaliyet ve görevlerin yerine getirilmesindeki hukuki araçlar, bu görevleri yerine getiren görevliler ve personel sistemini, bu personelin görevlerini yerine getirirken sebep oldukları zararlardan kaynaklanan sorumluluklarını, idarenin mallarının hukuki rejimini ve mal edinme yöntemleri ile idarenin yargısal denetimini konu alan bir hukuk dalıdır.
Medeni Hukuka Giriş	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Arzu Arıdemir	Medeni Hukuka Giriş, Medeni hukukun amacı, konusu ve kaynakları, temel kavramları hakkında temel ilkeleri öğrenciye tanıtır. Özellikle hak kavramı, çeşitli açılardan hakkın türleri, hak sahibi, hakların kazanılması ve kaybedilmesi konuları, Medeni Kanun ve Borçlar Kanunu hükümleri çerçevesinde incelenir. Amaç, özel hukukun bel kemiğini oluşturan Medeni Hukukun temel kavramlarını tanıtmak, kişiler hukuku, aile hukuku, eşya hukuku, miras hukuku ve borçlar hukuku derslerine temel hazırlamaktır
Türk Ceza Hukukuna Giriş	Prof. Dr. Adem Sözüer	Türk Ceza Hukukuna Giriş dersinde suç teşkil eden bir haksızlığın varlığını kabul edebilmek ve suç olarak tanımlanan fiili gerçekleştiren kişi hakkında Ceza Hukukuna özgü yaptırımları uygulayabilmek için gerekli şartların neler olduğunu incelenecektir. Bu kapsamda; suçun yapısal unsurlarına; ceza sorumluluğunun esaslarına ve şartlarına;

		teşebbüs, içtima, iştirak gibi suçun özel görünüm şekillerine; yaptırımlar ve bunların kişiselleştirilmesine ilişkin kurallar ele alınacaktır
Uluslararası Göç Hukuku	Prof. Dr. İbrahim Kaya Dr. Elif Başkaracaoğlu	Bu ders uluslararası göç ile ilgili hukuk kurallarını içermektedir. Bu bağlamda şu konular ele alınacaktır: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Uluslararası hukukta yabancıların hakları• Göçmen işçiler• Mülteciler• Düzensiz göçmenler