United Nations A/HRC/RES/52/28

General Assembly

Human Rights Council

Human rights situations that require the Council's attention

Resolution adopted by the Human Rights Council on 29 May 2025

52/28. Situation of human rights in Naburi

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and other human rights instruments,

Recalling all previous resolutions adopted by the Commision on Human Rights, the Human Rights Council and the General Assembly on the situation of human rights in Naburi

Bearing in mind paragraph 18 of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 of 30 October 2000.

Urges for women rights to be implemented with respect to Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Urges for inclusive institutional reform that will be observed by international organisation like European Union and United Nations without endangering the sovereignty of Naburi.

[1] A/HRC/25/63.

FINAL AGREEMENT TO END THE ARMED CONFLICT AND BUILD A STABLE AND LASTING PEACE IN NABURI

PREAMBLE

Recalling the dialogues between Naburi Nationals, EU representative and Civil Society Groups representative of Naburi. Led by the Chief Negotiator of the EU Alara Saygı and other delegates based on their mutual decision to bring peace and stability to Naburi, came about as the result of exploratory meeting that took place in the UN Human Rights Council's headquarters.

INTRODUCTION

The Final Agreements contains the following items, with their corresponding accords, that aim to contribute to the changes required to lay the foundations for a stable and long lasting-peace.

1. Towards a New Naburi: Safety and Longevity

In the opinion of the Naburi government, the following transformations should help to reverse the effects of the conflict and to change the conditions that have facilitated the persistence of violence in Naburi territory.

Principles
-Prioritisation: womens safety, prosperity, bodily integrity, protection from violation by both Naburi government and international bodies.
-Participation: civil society and youth to be heard and added into the governments
-Non-discrimination: no minorities religious and ethnic groups will be discriminated.
-Legal Premise: all institutional change in legislative branch of Naburi goverment will be reformed women rights and all other parties in mind.
-Civil Society Presence: civil society can not be excluded due to their value of representing grass root opinion.
-Financing of local businesses and civil society: will be voluntarily made by international organisations
-Oversight and Review: will be provided in a non legally binding way by both UN on human rights and EU on institutional change.

1.1.Quotas

There will be women quotas on the hiring of the government officials in all levels of executive, legislative and judiciary branches of the Naburi government.

1.2.Funds

Both civil society and local businesses will be funded.

1.3.Joint Implementation Commission

EU will chair the commission that watches the institutional change and implementation of the human rights necessities into Naburi's government. EU will have only a reccomendative and observatory role in the commission and not endanger the sovereignty of Naburi.

1.5.Oversight Council

Will be performed till the reaching of mutual goals.

1.6.UN Periodic Review

Will be performed annually and give recommendations, it is not legally binding.

1.7.Legislative Reform

There will be a court gathered to redeem the violations that was made in the war.

1.8.Freedom of Media

Will be ensured just like the youth, religious groups, minorities and women will be heard in all levels of Naburi.